OBJECTIVES FOR 2025-26 SEASON

We had a brilliant season last season with four teams in finals , Weekend Side 1 promoted to Division 2 and Midweek Side 2 promoted to Division 4. Midweek Side 1 and our Night Pennant Side were the other finalists.

The selectors, Lindsay Markham and David Rae (weekend) with Barrie Epstein and Shirley Murray (Midweek), Phil Rosengarten and Chris Cullinan (Midweek) have indicated that their key objective for this season is.....

To retain the positions as gained last year.

We have a very tight pool of players for weekend pennant this season so it is imperative that all players make sure that any potential absences are declared in the Unavailability Books.

The recruitment drive continues...

Gareth and Howard spruiked the benefits of "Mount Waverley - The Friendly Club " at a stall at the Mount Waverley Village Market on Sunday 12th October.

A recently purchased gazebo was suitably decked out with Club banner, 2 sets of bowls and lots of club Brochures.

The stall generated a fair bit of interest and over 20 brochures were given to interested parties.

Our second bowls for Beginners Course saw 9 people attend the first of four sessions on Friday 10th October.

Thanks to Joe, Gareth, Bernie, and Damian for making available their bowling talents and experience and to Robin for greeting class members and recording attendances

HOSTING THE EASTERN RANGES WOMENS' TRIPLES.....

The first and second round of the ERBR Ladies Triples was played at Mount Waverley on Sunday 19 October.

We had teams from Berwick, Mulgrave CC, Heathmont, Monbulk, Blackburn, Blackburn North, Pakenham, Mooroolbark, Croydon and Lilydale.

The quarter final and final will be at Upwey Tecoma.

A Great day with very competitive competition despite the windy conditions.

Thank you to our volunteers Michelle Chan (chef and umpire of the day), Shirley Murray, Damian Marks and Barrie Epstein.

Special thanks to Joe Bonnici for the preparation of the synthetic green.

SUPER WEDNESDAYS - OFF TO A FLYING START !

Over 30 players turned up for the initial Super Wednesday Triples, possibly lured by the very generous sponsorship provided by Leishman Financial Services - a long time sponsor of the club- but also due to the enormous effort put in by Jim Fary who must have lobbied just about every member he could see ! Congratulations to all the organising team for a sterling effort.

Simone Vanden-Driesen from Leishman Financial Services came to present the prizes and by some amazing coincidence - "sheer skill" he insisted - the winning rink was skipped by Doug Oldfield a long-time client !!! Good to see some new members, such as Gary Bruce among the prizemoney.
